Introduction

YOUR GUIDE TO STUDY ABROAD

Very soon you'll be on your way to new adventures and experiences abroad. There's a lot to do before you leave and there's UC support and resources available to you.

In this guide you'll find:

- Actions that will help you prepare for studying abroad.
- Tips to help you make the most of study, internships, or research abroad.
- Standards and policies developed to ensure your safety and well-being.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP

If you have any questions along the way, contact your personal UCEAP advisor in person, by phone, or by email.

- Main UCEAP Helpline: 805-893-4762
- Email UCEAP: info@uceap.universityofcalifornia.edu for financial, academic, or other program-related questions

The University of California, in accordance with applicable Federal and State law and University policy, does not discriminate on the basis of race, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy*, disability, age, medical condition (cancer-related), ancestry, marital status, citizenship, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran or special disabled veteran. The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in University programs and activities. Inquiries regarding the University's student-related nondiscrimination policies may be directed to the campus Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action office.
